

Chamberlain Hrdlicka

Chamberlain Hrdlicka | Securing the Big Win

CHALLENGE

The distinguished national law firm Chamberlain, Hrdlicka, White, Williams & Aughtry knew that taking the U.S. Department of Labor to battle over an employee misclassification accusation would be an uphill fight.

OBJECTIVE

Defend South Texas energy client and established as an industry pioneer.

SOLUTION

Chamberlain Hrdlicka successfully defended their South Texas energy client and, with Pierpont's support, established themselves as an industry pioneer through their case's extensive coverage in local, national, and trade publications.

RESULT

News of the firm's success reached more than 13 million people, and Chamberlain & Hrdlicka was able to secure a webinar hosting position for one of its lead attorneys. The high-profile nature of the case leads to numerous additional speaking opportunities, increased visibility, and brand recognition for the firm.

BY THE NUMBERS

13M+

People Reached